

The NJ law needs to remain as written. Sales calls are nothing but a waste of peoples precious time. If I want to buy something I'll go and get it. Don't we get enough advertising through television and press? I feel my privacy is being invaded each time I receive a call during dinner.